

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Friday - 6 June 1952

- - - - -

1. The Third Supplemental Appropriation Bill passed the Congress yesterday and it was signed by the President. The bill contains the language which allows CIA to pay its employees the retroactive salaries from July 1 to October 24, 1951.

2. The DCI has determined not to seek funds for the construction of a CIA building during the current session of the Congress.

STATINTL 3. I have informed Mr. Borden that the DCI and Mr. Dulles will both be present at the Atomic Energy Committee meeting today. In addition, I have arranged for [ ] Chief/NED, to show Mr. Borden certain visual aids available in support of our proposal and secure informal guidance as to which ones would be preferable to use.

4. The Director, Mr. Dulles, Dr. Chadwell and [ ] STATINTL appeared before the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy in connection with the exchange of atomic energy information. Subsequently Mr. Borden, Committee staff Director, called to inform me that the Committee would take no further steps pending the conclusion of executive action in this matter -- namely, the specific approval of the proposals by the National Security Council and the President.